To whom it may concern:

Shawnta Pulliam was a presenter at our Girls World Expo in Erie Pa. We were thrilled with her participation and would welcome her as a speaker at our events anytime! Shawnta engaged the audience and delivered an inspirational message and well thought out seminar. We loved having her part of the team and asked her back to participate in the upcoming Erie conference 2012.

Girls World Expo is an events company that presents teen girl expos around the country. We focus on raising self-esteem and the personal growth of girls 11-18. Shawnta's message is a perfect fit for our program and she relates well with the teens. Shawnta is professional, bright, inspired, and very easy to work with. She is a perfect combination of brains, vision and a giving heart.

I highly recommend Shawnta Pulliam as a speaker or seminar facilitator and would be happy to speak with someone in further detail if necessary.
