To whom it may Concern

It's with great pleasure in my heart, that I recommend one of Shiloh's Baptist Church and the greater Erie communities committed servants. I've known Ms. Pulliam for almost five years and can attest to her strength of character, compassion for others and strong commitment to the development of young people through a program of her own developing 'Nurturing Hearts'. As the senior pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church, I can certainly attest to her being an active and contributing member of the community of Erie, believing that everyone has the potential to become great. She would make an outstanding addition to the statement 'Greatness is within Reach if there is a Desire to believe in Christ, and ones personal potential.'

Aside from her many accomplishments, I discovered her strengths and wonderful abilities when I approached her to be the chair of a very significant time in the life of the church she loves and serves. I ask if she would consider being the chairperson for 'Shiloh's 100 Church Anniversary'. After very little time considering, her generous heart could not let her pass of the opportunity to serve people.

I am continuously amazed by Ms. Pulliam's commitment to our community in various capacities. With her spirit of giving and skill for community organizing, and service Ms. Pulliam embodies a primary motto, "Service above self."

Ms. Pulliam is an outstanding and active citizen with a great commitment to community service. As her pastor, I have had the esteem pleasure of hearing her personal testimony, which was thrilling, inspiring, and encouraging. In the faith community, there is an expression that is often said of those who have experienced great struggle in life, and have overcome with great grace. That quote is "You Don't Look like what you Have Been Through". This is Ms. Pulliam. I prayer she is permitted the opportunity to share her story, that will inspire us all to be grateful for what we have, and encourage us to strive for a great life through servicing the needs of others.

Sincerely,
